

December 2009

Greetings:

As Chair of the NC-213 Awards Committee this year I invite you to submit nominations (individual or team) for the 2010 Andersons Cereals and Oilseeds Award of Excellence. A description of the award is included. Please send nominations to me, Dr. Stephen Kells, University of Minnesota, <kells002@umn.edu> and copy Bill Koshar <koshar.3@osu.edu> by Noon, January 15, 2010.

This is an important tradition of NC-213 and it provides an excellent opportunity to honor our colleagues for superior contributions to science and/or education related to quality of cereals and oilseeds. (Past award winners are listed below.)

1999-Lowell Hill
2000-Charles Hurburgh
2001-Fred Bakker-Arkema
2002-Marvin Paulsen
2003-Lloyd Bullerman
2004-Florence Dunkel
2005-Richard Stroshine
2006-Donald Wicklow
2007-Dirk Maier
2008-Tim Herrman
2009-David Jackson

Please be sure to send the completed nominations no later than Noon, January 15, 2010. We will announce the 2010 Andersons Cereals and Oilseeds Award of Excellence winner at the NC-213 Annual Meeting Banquet in Kansas City, Missouri.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Stephen Kells

The Andersons Cereals and Oilseeds Award of Excellence

Description-

The Andersons Cereals and Oilseeds Award of Excellence was created in 1999 to recognize individuals or teams that have made superior contributions to science and/or education related to cereals and oilseeds.

Eligibility-

Nominees for The Andersons Award:

- 1-Must demonstrate a well-documented history of superior contributions to science and/or education related to cereals and oilseeds.
- 2-Can be associated with a university, private industry, or a state or federal agency.
- 3-Although it is desirable they do not need to be a member of NC-213.

Nomination Package-

Nomination packages must include the following:

- 1-Not more than three letters of support including at least one letter from private industry.
- 2-Not more than five pages (single-spaced, 12 point font) that describe the nominee's background, contributions, and impacts on the cereal and oilseed industry, research community, or educational programs.
- 3-A complete curriculum vitae.

Review-

A committee will solicit and review nomination packages.

Award Date-

The Andersons Cereals and Oilseeds Award of Excellence will be presented during the annual meeting of Multistate Project NC-213, "Marketing and Delivery of Quality Grains and BioProcess Coproducts" (NC-213 – The U.S. Quality Grains Research Consortium).
